

Attention all golf nuts! – Deadline 10/9/08

No handicap needed – just enthusiasm for banging a little white ball around a beautiful course

Don't miss this great opportunity to play a world class course with your Independent Study colleagues!

CCIS is planning a golf tournament at the Rancho Las Palmas Country Club in conjunction with the Fall Conference in Rancho Mirage. This is a Ted Robinson designed 27-hole golf course, with fairways that meander over gently rolling terrain and around six lakes at the base of snow-capped Mount San Jacinto. Lose yourself in the gentle contours of this course, renowned for its secluded sand traps, rolling terrain, palm-lined fairways, and magnificent mountain views. The golf course features:

- Bermuda grass, tees, fairways, and greens
- Six beautiful lakes throughout the course
- 80 sand bunkers, strategically placed
- Over 1,500 palm trees lining the fairways
- Practice facility, with three-tier grass hitting area
- Bermuda-grass practice putting greens

You don't have to be a great player to join in the fun. Just be ready to come and enjoy the sun and fun with your colleagues. Foursomes are not required; we will match singles, couples, etc. Friends, spouses welcome!

When? Sunday, October 26, 2008 – 12:00 noon
Where? Rancho Las Palmas Resort & Spa Golf Club, Rancho Mirage
Cost? Just $84 for 18 holes, cart and CCIS-hosted 19th Hole Party at the hotel

Once you register and your check is in, I will send you a confirmation with your foursome's tee time. Plan on being at the course 30 minutes before your tee time to check in, find your cart, and put on your shoes, etc.
