

Personalized Social Emotional Learning for Your School CCIS Fall 2018 Joinpd.com PearDeck Code:

Five Components of SEL

- Self-Awareness
- Self-Management
- Social-Awareness
- Relationship Building
- Decision Making

What can SEL do?

- Reduce aggression and emotional stress
- Increase “helping behaviors”
- Improve attitudes toward school
- Increase academic achievement by 11 percentage points

Do you run programs

- Which serve as a refuge?
- For students with “go-back” goals?
- In which students need more opportunities to grow SEL skills?

Challenges

Challenges at our school include _____.
ex: limited resources

Notes

Ex: limited resources

What drives your students?

Students at our school are driven by their need for _____.

ex: good grades

Notes

Ex: good grades

MENU BASED COURSE

- Personalized
- Semester-Based
- Repeatable
- Work-Products

First Menu Category: SEL Curriculum

- Quantity
- Quality
- Budget
- Online

SEL Independent Study - Examples of Curricula and Resources
Pre-Fab	DIY
Base.ed	CASEL
Ripple Effects	Canvas Commons
Shmoop PBIS	OER Commons
Second Step

One way we could implement SEL lessons at our school is to _____.

Ex: utilize an online provider

Notes

Second Menu Category: Group Activities

- Counselor-led Workshops: 12 per semester
- Partner sponsored seminar series: WYS, Mindfulness

One community partner we could reach out to for assistance with group activities is _____.

Notes

Third Menu Category: One to One Coaching

- Counselor
- Wellness Coach
- Mental Health Clinician

Eighteen Activities from Three Categories
Curriculum-Based Lessons	Group Activities	One to One Coaching
Over 100 Modules Available	Two types available	2-3 types available
Students choose a minimum of 5 from this category	Students choose a minimum of 5 from this category	Students choose a minimum of 3 from this category

Another menu category that could work at our school is _____.

Notes

What sounds promising?

- Granting SEL credit-earning potential
- Creating a personalized menu-based course
- Maximizing resources by partnering with local agencies
- Resources for SEL

Notes
